PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

With its large 1270 x 920mm working area, the A0 Ackworth floor standing drawing board with cross-wire parallel motion provides you with the space to bring your drawings to life. So whether you're designing the next skyscraper, or colouring a garden layout this professional drawing table delivers all the functionality you could require in a compact and robust package.

A high precision aluminium straight edge with clear machined drawing edge is ideal for detailed drawing work.

The sturdy A-frame stand allows you to set the board height and working angle quickly and easily, and it can be folded away if required for storage or transport.
